

Terms & Conditions for eXperts

eXperts is the worldwide information program ('Program') operated by "Deutsche Lufthansa AG" ('Lufthansa', 'we/us'). Lufthansa reserves the right to use Lufthansa Group airlines (Austrian Airlines, Brussels Airlines, and SWISS) as joint operators of the Program.

The Program provides fast communication with IATA and NON IATA travel agents. The following terms and conditions shall apply ('terms') to every member ('you') of the eXperts program in United Kingdom, Ireland, Nordic countries and Baltic states:

1. Participants

Those eligible to take part are staff of IATA and NON IATA travel agencies, tour operators and consolidators - with registered offices in United Kingdom, Ireland, Nordic countries and Baltic states - to whom Lufthansa wants to offer the eXperts program.

Lufthansa reserves the right to request proof of employment.

Lufthansa may reject the admission of participants who have not fulfilled the above requirements. Any legal claim for acceptance of participation is hereby excluded. Participation commences with acceptance of the completed application form by Lufthansa and is free of charge.

A significant part of the communication process within eXperts is handled via online media (the eXperts website and online newsletter for example). Therefore, when applying to eXperts, the participant is asked to agree to receive eXperts communication via e-mail.

Lufthansa is entitled to terminate participation in the eXperts Program, subject to prior notice in writing, if the participant does not agree anymore to receive eXperts newsletters.

2. Range of services

Lufthansa will provide participants with specific, exclusive services; these may include (but not be limited to):

- Lufthansa information individually tailored to meet the requirements of the participant and his/her sphere of activity
- SWISS information individually tailored to meet the requirements of the participant and his/her sphere of activity
- Austrian Airlines information individually tailored to meet the requirements of the participant and his/her sphere of activity
- Brussels information individually tailored to meet the requirements of the participant and his/her sphere of activity
- Seminars and other complementary training courses
- Product familiarization offers (for example: study trips, flights with Lufthansa partner companies, simulator flights)

- Various incentives

Participants will be notified about items of information and offers, together with full details by e-mail or via the eXperts website. There is a charge for some services (e.g. Product familiarization offers).

3. Duration of the Program

The Program will run for an indefinite period. Lufthansa reserves the right to terminate the Program at any time or to replace it with another program. Both cases are equivalent to termination by Lufthansa in accordance with section 6.

Lufthansa reserves the right to apply changes to these Terms & Conditions of participation at any time. Such changes will be announced in advance (by written notification or by e-mail, for example).
